Course overview

THIS IS A FREE 'MULTIPLY' COURSE FOR NORFOLK RESIDENTS ONLY Starting your small business is an introductory course for anyone who is considering setting up a small or micro-business or is considering self-employment as a career option. If you are looking at this course because you are considering working for yourself in some capacity, you will find lots of interesting information. If you have a small business in mind or want to become self-employed, this course will answer your initial questions and help you to focus on the most important aspects of this ambitious and exciting endeavour. Some activities ask you to think about a business you are planning to start, but if you do not have a business in mind, you can consider any potential business for the exercises.

Course description

THIS IS A FREE 'MULTIPLY' COURSE FOR NORFOLK RESIDENTS ONLY

In this short course (12 hours) we will focus primarily on the structure of a very small business. Maybe you have a hobby that could make you some extra money... The internet and social media have made the term 'side-hustle- part of our daily vocabulary.

In this course you will develop your knowledge of the general principles and points of small business start-up and operations. You too, can have a successful and potentially lucrative 'side-hustle'.

The course will consist of the following sections:

- o Considering business structures and their suitability for a small business in the UK
- o Starting a small business
- o Types of business

- o Choosing your own business structure
- o Recognising the ways in which a small business can gain and keep customers
- o Buying behaviours
- o Approaches to marketing
- o Communicating with customers
- o Advertising and promotions
- o Public Relations
- o E-commerce
- o Social media in marketing
- o Working with customers
- o Creating flyers and marketing materials
- o Using online apps to create eye-catching print and graphics
- o Copyright and accessing images
- o Financial and legal obligations of running a small business
- o Business owner's responsibilities
- o Value Added Tax (VAT)
- o Business accounting and software

- o The Importance of using spreadsheets
- o Common aspects of successful small businesses
- o Measuring success
