Course overview

Unlock the vibrant world of acrylic painting in our one-day workshop, "Paint an Expressive Landscape with Acrylic," held at the Springbourne Library. This immersive course is designed for beginners and enthusiasts alike, providing a comprehensive introduction to the techniques and principles of landscape painting using acrylics. During this enriching day, you will delve into the expressive potential of acrylics, learning to capture the essence and mood of a landscape through colour, texture, and composition. Guided by an experienced artist instructor, you will explore various painting techniques, from bold brushwork to subtle blending, to create dynamic and evocative landscapes.

Course description

The workshop will commence with an introduction to materials and tools, ensuring participants are equipped with the knowledge to confidently handle acrylic paints, brushes, and surfaces. Through step-by-step demonstrations and hands-on practice, you will gain a solid understanding of colour theory, perspective, and the importance of light and shadow in landscape painting.

As the day progresses, you will be encouraged to experiment with different styles and approaches, fostering your unique artistic voice and creativity. Whether you are drawn to serene sunsets, rugged mountains, or tranquil seascapes, this course will empower you to translate your vision onto canvas with confidence and flair. The experienced tutor will guide and walk you through new techniques; give space to analyse and improve work done, and encourage a motivating and open safe space for reflection and encouragement

By the end of the workshop, participants will have completed their own expressive landscape painting, ready to take home and proudly display. Moreover, you will leave with newfound skills, inspiration, and a deeper appreciation for the art of acrylic painting. The course will end with next steps and progressions.

Join us for a day of creativity, exploration, and artistic growth at the Russell Cotes Museum
