Course overview

This is a taster / enrollment session for our short course "Money Management & Budgeting for ESOL Learners" that will be running at Littlehampton JCP from 12 July. This short course is designed for ESOL learners who want to learn more about the language and skills that will help you manage your money, make good shopping decisions, and understand budgeting. The course will look at the principles of managing money in everyday situations like comparing prices on the high street, working out the best deal for transport to get to work or learning, or the cost of cooking a meal.

Course description

This course is an introduction for ESOL learners to the skills and language of using money, budgeting, and understanding bills and other information about money.

You will learn the language and communication skills needed to understand what you are spending and to explain what how you want to use your money. You will also learn the skills and language needed to understand, discuss, and explain:

- Money and budgeting

- Day-to-day practical situations like shopping, travel, and planning meals
- Bills and other documents about money
- Common everyday skills like measuring, weighing, and estimating, and
- How to make your money stretch a little bit further!

You will be helped to talk about different strategies and ideas about how to spend, save, and budget and learn from others.

Supported by a dedicated tutor and working in a small group of learners, this short two-lesson course is ideal for any ESOL learners who wants to increase their skills, knowledge, confidence, and ability to understand and explain how they want to use their money.

This course is supported by the Government-funded Multiply programme and is free to learners that are aged 19 or above, who live in a West Sussex postcode
