Course overview

Join us for a creative Card Making course at Parkstone Connect, a vibrant day centre dedicated to adults with learning difficulties. Our welcoming environment fosters creativity and fun. Participants will explore a variety of card-making techniques, including stamping, embossing, and die-cutting, to craft beautiful, personalized cards. Led by experienced tutors, the course provides all materials and offers step-by-step guidance, ensuring everyone can enjoy the process and create stunning cards to share with loved ones. Whether you're a seasoned crafter or a complete beginner, our supportive community is here to help you unleash your artistic potential.

Course description

One of the unique aspects of this course is the emphasis on relaxation and community building. We understand that crafting can be a therapeutic activity, and we aim to create a nurturing environment where you can unwind, destress, and connect with fellow card making enthusiasts. Our tutors will provide valuable tips on how to create a calm and peaceful crafting space, allowing you to fully immerse yourself in the creative process.

As you progress through the course, you will have plenty of opportunities to engage with other learners, share your creations, and receive constructive feedback. Our online community forum will serve as a platform for collaboration, inspiration, and mutual support. You will be encouraged to showcase your unique style, exchange ideas, and celebrate each other's accomplishments.

By the end of this course, you will have developed a wide range of card making skills, gained confidence in your artistic abilities, and cultivated a sense of belonging within the card making craft community. Whether you are a beginner or an experienced crafter, this course is designed to cater to all skill levels and provide a space for personal growth and creative expression. Once you have completed this course you can progress onto the improvers Art and Crafts course .

What financial support is available?
