Course overview

Latin is more alive than ever. It is often called a “dead” language, yet it is all around us. This online Latin course is ideal for language and history enthusiasts alike. Whether you are interested in language learning, botany, law, medicine, or even family history, you will find Latin everywhere. This beginner’s Latin course will teach you the essential grammar and syntax to start reading and understanding Latin. Learn to translate basic sentences into English. Learning Latin will give you transferable knowledge to apply to any language learning. This fascinating language is considered the blueprint for modern languages. Understand the etymology of various European languages, including French, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, and Romanian.

Course description

Latin for beginners goes beyond language learning. You’ll also study the historical context in which Latin was written. Learn about the city of Rome and the Roman Empire.

This course is aimed at complete beginners. We’ll start from scratch so you don’t need any prior knowledge to sign up for this online Latin course.

This taster course can help you decide if you’d like to continue studying Latin. When you complete Latin for beginners, you can progress to improver’s Latin.
