Course description

Join us at this Beginner's Knitting Workshop, a comprehensive 3-hour session designed to introduce you to the fundamental techniques of knitting. Perfect for those who have never picked up needles before, this workshop will equip you with the essential skills needed to start your knitting journey. Our experienced tutor will guide you through the basics, starting with how to cast on, the crucial first step in any knitting project. You'll learn various methods to cast on stitches, giving you flexibility in your future projects. Next, you'll be introduced to the knit stitch and the purl stitch, the building blocks of knitting. Through hands-on practice, you'll understand how to create these stitches and how they can be combined to form different textures and patterns. As you become more comfortable with these techniques, you'll also learn how to cast off, completing your knitting piece with a neat and secure edge. Throughout the workshop, personalized guidance ensures that you gain confidence in handling your needles and yarn. By the end of the class, you'll have a completed sample piece to take home and the foundational skills to start your own knitting projects. Join us for a relaxing and rewarding introduction to knitting, and discover the creative possibilities of this timeless craft.
