Course overview

Welcome to Term 3 of the Italian Course! This course enhances your Italian with practical topics to boost conversational skills. Learn to confidently order in restaurants, discuss weather conditions, talk about spare time activities, and describe people's appearances and personalities. Interactive lessons include role-playing, listening exercises, and cultural insights for a comprehensive learning experience. By the end of the term, you'll navigate restaurant menus, engage in weather conversations, describe hobbies, and portray individuals in Italian. Assessments through participation, quizzes, and assignments track your progress. Join us to deepen your Italian proficiency and cultural appreciation. Buon viaggio!

Course description

Welcome to Term 3 of the Italian Course! This course continues to build your Italian language skills with practical topics to enhance conversational abilities and fluency. This term covers essential scenarios such as ordering in a restaurant, where you'll learn to read menus, make reservations, order food and drinks, and express dining preferences. You'll also gain vocabulary to discuss the weather, enabling you to describe conditions, forecast, and engage in small talk about seasons. Additionally, the course focuses on discussing spare time and hobbies. You'll learn to talk about interests, describe weekend plans, and ask others about activities. Describing people is another key topic, practicing vocabulary for appearance, personality traits, and clothing, enabling detailed descriptions. Interactive lessons include role-playing, listening comprehension, and cultural insights for a well-rounded learning experience. By term end, you'll confidently order in restaurants, discuss weather, talk about hobbies, and describe people in Italian. Regular participation, quizzes, and practical assignments assess progress. Join us to advance your Italian language skills and cultural understanding. Buon viaggio!
