Course overview

The "Get Ready for Functional Skills English Entry 2 Taster" course is designed to provide learners with a preview of the skills and knowledge necessary for succeeding in the Functional Skills English Entry 2 level. This short, introductory session aims to help students build upon their existing English language skills, making the transition to the next level smooth and achievable. Ideal for those who have completed Entry 1 or have basic English skills, this taster course will offer a glimpse into the curriculum, teaching methods, and assessment criteria of the full Entry 2 course.

Course description

This taster session is an excellent opportunity for learners to gauge their readiness for the next level of Functional Skills English and to start building the confidence and skills needed for everyday and academic success. Once you complete this get ready for course you will have the opportunity to join an accredited Entry 2 Functional Skills English course. You will have the opportunity to work towards gaining higher qualifications in English. English functional skills courses are accepted as a GCSE equivalent for many jobs and courses. Higher functional skills qualifications can help you do an apprenticeship, a higher education course, or go to university.

What financial support is available?
