Course description

If you are someone inspired by the landscape and want to express this through painting and drawing, this course will give you the skills and inspiration you need.

During this course you will spend time sketching in the landscape where possible, work from photos and draw on your experiences of landscapes.

You'll explore different techniques and creative approaches to create paintings and drawings using a variety of media. You will develop your skills in expressing yourself through landscape painting, whether you consider yourself a beginner or are looking to further develop your artistic practice.

This course gives everyone - from beginners up to intermediate - the opportunity to explore different landscape painting approaches and techniques in a relaxed and supportive environment. It explores a range of styles, from the conventional and representational to more experimental and avant-garde approaches.

Our highly experienced tutor, who is a practicing artist, provides practical and supportive advice on colour mixing, tonal variation, mark-making and composition. Your tutor will encourage you to explore your own personal enthusiasms to make individual and original paintings.
