Course overview

For those interested in creative writing as a tool for well being, developing writing skills with increased enjoyment in writing and particular emphasis on writing therapeutically - describing and utilising personal experience

Course description

Are you interested in creative writing as a tool for well being? Perhaps you already work with creative writing in this context or have often considered writing therapeutically or to develop memoirs. We will explore forms of writing directly about experience, expressing feelings and 'stream of consciousness' - free writing. We will look at different ways of writing about life experience, memory, incidents and small details that illustrate a narrative. We will do a short writing project. Your writing in progress is welcome. Have developed and enjoyed writing skills with particular emphasis on describing and utilising personal experience Optionally work in progress

What financial support is available?

We don't want anything to stand in your way when it comes to bringing Adult learning within reach so if you need anything to support you to achieve your goals then speak to one of our education experts during your enrolment journey. Most of our courses are government funded but if you don't qualify or need alternative financial help to access them then let us know.

What other support is available?

All of our digital content, teaching and learning activities and assessments are designed to be accessible so if you need any additional support you can discuss this with the education experts during your enrolment journey and we will do all we can to make sure you have optimal access.
