Course overview

Learn how to install and sign into the Canvas app, a site WEA uses to store course, on your mobile, laptop or tablet. Gain skills to access, download, and upload files effectively. The course focuses on using the Microsoft Excel app, where you'll create a spreadsheet and utilize basic math and auto functions to develop a practical budget spreadsheet. This training equips you with essential skills for managing and organizing your data efficiently, simplifying your personal or professional budgeting tasks. By the end of the course, you'll be proficient in handling digital files and creating functional spreadsheets for various needs.

Course description

Understanding how to use advanced features on your devices and apps is essential in today's digital world. This course will help you gain the confidence to explore new software and online services, empowering you to work or study independently in various digital environments. You'll develop the skills needed to troubleshoot and fix common issues with digital devices, ensuring a smoother and more efficient experience.

Additionally, you'll delve into digital creation software and tools, broadening your technological capabilities. A key focus of the course is learning how to install and sign into the Canvas app on your mobile, laptop or tablet, enabling you to study effectively from home. You will also master using Microsoft Excel to create spreadsheets utilizing basic math functions and inbuilt auto functions to develop a practical budget spreadsheet.

By the end of this course, you will be well-equipped with essential digital skills and prepared to further your education in specific areas of technology. Whether for personal use, professional development, or academic purposes, the knowledge gained from this course will help you navigate and excel in the digital world. This foundational understanding will serve as a springboard for continued learning and proficiency in various digital applications and tools.
