Course overview

This 5 week online art course offers a comprehensive introduction to the fascinating world of Art and Design Movements. Throughout the course, you will delve into the history, philosophy and influential works of five prominent movements: Bauhaus, Memphis Group, De Stijl, Art Nouveau and Art Deco. Each week, you will explore a different movement gaining a deeper understanding of its key characteristics, notable artists and the societal and cultural contexts that shaped its development.

Course description

Embark on a journey into the captivating realm of Art and Design Movements through our dynamic 5 week course. In Week 1, you'll unfurl the originals of the groundbreaking Bauhaus movement, examining its revolutionary approach to design, architecture and the synthesis of art forms. Week 2 beckons you into the whimsical and innovative realm of the Memphis Group where postmodernism's eclectic fusion of colours and shapes takes centre stage. Week 3 unveils the harmonious simplicity of De Stijl, a Dutch movement that championed abstraction and geometric precision. Art Nouveau explored in Week 4 enchants with its organic motifs and intricate craftsmanship. Week 5 introduces Art Deco, where elegance and opulence merge in a symphony of geometry. Throughout this course, you will learn through group discussions and visual examinations of key examples from each art and design movement. Each week will begin with a short introductory presentation on the art and design movement we are learning about that week.
