Course overview

Debating, Reading, Writing, Speaking and Listening - A basic and practical English course where learners will learn how to write informal and formal letters and emails. Develop their reading and writing skills and also their speaking and listening skills.

Course description

Learners will develop their English skills in the form of writing informal and formal letters and emails. They will also develop their spelling skills when spelling frequently and infrequently used words.

Learners will be given topics to discuss and debate within the class including the outcome of the recent general election. They will plan and prepare for a debate looking at for and against arguments.

What financial support is available?

We don't want anything to stand in your way when it comes to bringing Adult learning within reach so if you need anything to support you to achieve your goals then speak to one of our education experts during your enrolment journey. Most of our courses are government funded but if you don't qualify or need.

What other support is available?

All of our digital content, teaching and learning activities and assessments are designed to be accessible so if you need any additional support you can discuss this with the education experts during your enrolment journey and we will do all we can to make sure you have optimal access.
