Course overview

Enhance your English skills while learning about Universal Credit and budgeting with our comprehensive ESOL course. Focus on practical communication and financial literacy. Ideal for non-native speakers looking to improve their English proficiency and financial knowledge.

Course description

Entry Level ESOL: ESOL - Universal Credit and Budgeting is designed to help non-native English speakers improve their language skills while gaining essential knowledge about Universal Credit and budgeting. This course covers key aspects of English communication, including speaking, listening, reading, and writing, with a focus on financial literacy. Participants will learn practical vocabulary and phrases used in financial contexts, such as understanding benefits, managing a budget, and dealing with financial institutions. The course includes interactive activities, group discussions, and role-plays that encourage active participation and real-life practice. By the end of the course, participants will have a solid foundation in English language skills and a better understanding of Universal Credit and budgeting, enabling them to navigate financial matters more confidently. This course is ideal for individuals looking to improve their English proficiency and financial knowledge for personal, social, and professional purposes.
