Course description

Professional Development: What Do I Do Next? is designed to help individuals gain clarity on their career path and set achievable professional goals. This course covers key aspects of career planning, including self-assessment, exploring career options, and setting short-term and long-term goals. Participants will learn how to identify their strengths and interests, research potential career paths, and create a plan to achieve their professional aspirations. The course includes practical exercises, discussions, and individual feedback, providing students with the tools and confidence needed to take the next steps in their career journey. By the end of the course, participants will have a clear understanding of their career goals and a roadmap for achieving them. This course is ideal for anyone seeking guidance on their career journey and looking to make informed decisions about their professional future.

What financial support is available?

We don't want anything to stand in your way when it comes to bringing Adult learning within reach so if you need anything to support you to achieve your goals then speak to one of our education experts during your enrolment journey. Most of our courses are government funded but if you don't qualify or need alternative financial help to access them then let us know.

What other support is available?

All of our digital content, teaching and learning activities and assessments are designed to be accessible so if you need any additional support you can discuss this with the education experts during your enrolment journey and we will do all we can to make sure you have optimal access.
