Course overview

Learn essential bushcraft skills and connect with nature through our Basic Bushcraft Skills course. Explore techniques for outdoor survival, shelter building, and fire making. Ideal for outdoor enthusiasts and those interested in self-sufficiency.

Course description

Personal Development: Basic Bushcraft Skills is designed to help individuals develop essential outdoor survival skills and connect with nature. This course covers key bushcraft techniques, including shelter building, fire making, foraging, and navigation. Participants will learn how to use natural resources to create shelters, start fires safely, and find food in the wild. The course includes hands-on practice and guided instruction, allowing students to develop their skills and gain confidence in their ability to survive in the outdoors. Emphasis is placed on respecting nature and understanding the principles of sustainable and responsible bushcraft. By the end of the course, participants will have the knowledge and skills needed to enjoy and thrive in outdoor environments. This course is ideal for outdoor enthusiasts, adventurers, and anyone interested in learning self-sufficiency skills and connecting with nature.
