

Course details

Course title

History: A History of the River Thames and other London Waterways

Course code

Q00017267

Course date

Start: 23/09/24

End: 02/12/24

Branch

Ilford and Gants Hill Branch

Fee range

Free to £100.00

How you'll learn

You'll join a small group of fellow learners for classes at the venue indicated. Some materials may be provided in our virtual learning environment.

Got it!

In venue

Venue

The Drive Methodist Church (Redbridge)

Eastern Avenue

Redbridge

IG4 5AB

Level of study

Beginners

Course overview

Explore the rich history of the River Thames and other London waterways with our comprehensive course. Learn about the historical, cultural, and economic significance of these iconic waterways. Ideal for history enthusiasts and those interested in London's heritage.

Course description

History: A History of the River Thames and Other London Waterways is designed to provide participants with an in-depth understanding of the historical, cultural, and economic significance of the River Thames and other waterways in London. This course covers key events, developments, and changes that have shaped the waterways over centuries. Participants will learn about the role of the Thames and its tributaries in the growth of London, their impact on trade and industry, and their influence on the city's social and cultural life. The course includes lectures, readings, and guided explorations of historical sites along the waterways. Through engaging discussions and interactive activities, students will gain a comprehensive overview of the history of London's waterways and their continuing importance to the city's identity. By the end of the course, participants will have a deeper appreciation for the rich history of the River Thames and other London waterways and their enduring legacy. This course is ideal for history enthusiasts and anyone interested in exploring London's unique heritage.

What financial support is available?

We don't want anything to stand in your way when it comes to bringing Adult learning within reach so if you need anything to support you to achieve your goals then speak to one of our education experts during your enrolment journey. Most of our courses are government funded but if you don't qualify or need alternative financial help to access them then let us know.

What other support is available?

All of our digital content, teaching and learning activities and assessments are designed to be accessible so if you need any additional support you can discuss this with the education experts during your enrolment journey and we will do all we can to make sure you have optimal access.

Source URL: <https://www.wea.org.uk/courses/humanities-science/history/23-september-history-history-river-thames-and-other-london>