Course overview

Bring your characters to life with our Creative Writing: Creating and Developing Characters course. Learn techniques for creating complex, believable characters that drive your stories. Ideal for writers looking to enhance their character development skills.

Course description

Creative Writing: Creating and Developing Characters is designed to help writers create complex and believable characters that drive their stories. This course covers essential techniques for character development, including creating backstories, understanding motivations, and exploring relationships. Participants will engage in writing exercises and prompts that encourage deep exploration of their characters' personalities, emotions, and actions. The course includes lessons on dialogue, character arcs, and integrating characters into the plot. Through guided instruction and peer feedback, students will refine their character development skills and create compelling, multidimensional characters. By the end of the course, participants will have a toolkit of techniques for developing characters that resonate with readers and enhance their storytelling. This course is ideal for writers looking to enhance their character development skills and bring their stories to life.
