Course overview

"Introduction to Dance and Musical" is a dynamic course designed for learners with learning difficulties at Journey Enterprises, Kenton. This course offers a fun and supportive environment to explore the world of dance and musicals, helping learners build confidence, improve mental and physical health, make meaningful connections with their peers and express themselves creatively. Through engaging activities, learners will develop coordination, rhythm, and communication skills while enjoying the joy of performance. Completing this course will prepare learners for advanced training with WEA, where they will have the opportunity to showcase their talents in a final performance for family and friends.

Course description

"Introduction to Dance and Musical" is an enriching course created for individuals with learning difficulties, offering them the chance to explore the captivating world of dance and musical theatre. We recognise the unique needs of our learners at Journey Enterprises, Kenton, and we are committed to providing a nurturing environment where learners can grow, express themselves, and gain essential life skills through the performing arts.

The course is carefully structured to help learners improve their mental and physical well-being through movement, rhythm, and music. Engaging in a variety of dance styles and musical numbers, learners will develop coordination, flexibility, and a sense of timing, all while experiencing the joy of creative expression. The collaborative nature of the course encourages teamwork, social interaction, and communication, helping learners build meaningful connections with their peers.

In addition to the immediate benefits of increased confidence and well-being, this course lays the groundwork for further exploration in the performing arts. Upon completion, participants will be equipped to progress to a higher-level course that focuses on preparing a full drama performance. This final showcase will allow them to demonstrate their growth and newfound skills in a celebratory event for family and friends.

Join us at Journey Enterprises, Kenton, and embark on a transformative journey through dance and musical theatre.
