Course overview

Continue your exploration of literature with our Literature: A Feast of Fiction (Part 2) course. Learn about key works and authors, and develop your literary analysis skills. Ideal for literature enthusiasts and anyone looking to deepen their understanding of fiction.

Course description

Literature: A Feast of Fiction (Part 2) is designed to build on the knowledge gained in Part 1 and further explore key works and authors in literature. This course covers a range of topics, including literary analysis, thematic exploration, and historical context. Participants will read and analyse selected texts, learning about different genres, styles, and periods in literature. The course includes lectures, discussions, and reading assignments that encourage critical thinking and deeper understanding of literary works. By the end of the course, participants will have enhanced their literary analysis skills and gained a deeper appreciation for fiction. This course is ideal for literature enthusiasts and anyone looking to deepen their understanding of fiction.
