Course overview

Participate in a community sewing project with our Textiles and Fashion: Spring Community Sewing Project 2 course. Learn advanced sewing techniques while working on collaborative projects. Ideal for sewing enthusiasts looking to connect with others and contribute to community initiatives.

Course description

Textiles and Fashion: Spring Community Sewing Project 2 is designed for sewing enthusiasts who want to participate in a collaborative sewing project. This course covers advanced sewing techniques and provides opportunities for participants to work on community-based sewing projects. Participants will learn how to design and create textiles that can be used for community initiatives, such as quilts, clothing, and accessories. The course includes hands-on projects, group activities, and expert guidance to support participants in their sewing endeavors. By the end of the course, participants will have developed their sewing skills, contributed to community projects, and connected with other sewing enthusiasts. This course is ideal for individuals looking to enhance their sewing skills while participating in meaningful community activities.
