Course overview

Gain practical outdoor skills with our Personal Development: DIY Skills in the Outdoors course. Learn how to build, repair, and create in an outdoor setting, using tools and materials available in nature. Ideal for individuals looking to enhance their self-sufficiency and enjoy the outdoors.

Course description

Personal Development: DIY Skills in the Outdoors is designed to teach participants practical skills for building, repairing, and creating in an outdoor environment. This course covers a range of DIY projects, from basic woodworking and shelter-building to creating outdoor furniture and garden structures. Participants will learn how to use natural materials, hand tools, and simple techniques to complete projects that enhance their outdoor space. The course includes hands-on workshops, expert demonstrations, and opportunities for creative problem-solving, helping participants develop the confidence and skills needed to tackle DIY projects independently. By the end of the course, participants will have completed several outdoor projects and gained a deeper appreciation for working with natural materials. This course is ideal for individuals who enjoy the outdoors and want to develop their self-sufficiency and DIY skills.

What financial support is available?

We don't want anything to stand in your way when it comes to bringing Adult learning within reach so if you need anything to support you to achieve your goals then speak to one of our education experts during your enrolment journey. Most of our courses are government funded but if you don't qualify or need alternative financial help to access them then let us know.

What other support is available?
