Course overview

Unleash your creativity with our Art Practical: Mixed Media and Abstract Art course. Learn how to combine different materials and techniques to create unique and expressive abstract artworks. Ideal for artists and crafters looking to experiment with new mediums.

Course description

Art Practical: Mixed Media and Abstract Art is designed for individuals who want to explore the creative potential of combining different materials and artistic techniques. This course covers a range of approaches to mixed media and abstract art, including collage, assemblage, and layering techniques that combine paint, fabric, paper, and found objects. Participants will learn how to create dynamic and textured artworks that express their personal style and vision. The course includes hands-on projects, expert guidance, and opportunities for creative experimentation, allowing students to push the boundaries of traditional art forms. By the end of the course, participants will have completed several mixed media and abstract art pieces and gained the confidence to continue exploring this versatile art form. This course is ideal for artists, crafters, and anyone interested in experimenting with new artistic techniques and materials.

What financial support is available?
