Course overview

Master the art of setting and description with our Creative Writing: Sense of Place: Showing & Telling course. Learn how to create vivid, immersive settings in your writing that engage and captivate readers. Ideal for writers looking to enhance their descriptive writing skills.

Course description

Creative Writing: Sense of Place: Showing & Telling is designed for writers who want to develop their ability to create vivid and engaging settings in their work. This course covers techniques for using descriptive language, sensory details, and imagery to bring locations to life on the page. Participants will learn how to balance showing and telling in their writing, creating immersive environments that enhance the reader's experience. The course includes writing exercises, peer critiques, and discussions that encourage participants to experiment with different approaches to setting and description. By the end of the course, participants will have produced a portfolio of writing that showcases their ability to create a strong sense of place in their work. This course is ideal for writers of all levels who want to enhance their descriptive writing skills and create more immersive stories.
