Course description

Music Making: Intermediate at Rhubarb Farm is designed to help musicians improve their technical skills and explore advanced music-making techniques. This course covers a range of topics, including advanced playing techniques, music theory, and composition. Participants will learn how to play and compose music in various styles, collaborate with other musicians, and perform confidently. The course includes practical demonstrations, group practice, and individual feedback to support students in developing their skills and musical style. Emphasis is placed on fostering creativity and encouraging experimentation with different musical approaches. By the end of the course, participants will have completed several music projects and gained confidence in their ability to create and perform advanced music. This course is ideal for musicians looking to refine their abilities and explore new musical styles.
