Course overview

Learn the art of botanical illustration with this course, designed for both beginners and experienced artists. Perfect for those with an interest in plants and the natural world.

Course description

Art Practical: Botanical Illustration offers participants the opportunity to explore the beauty of plants through detailed illustration. This course covers the fundamentals of botanical art, including drawing techniques, composition, and the use of colour. Participants will work with various media such as pencils, watercolours, and inks, focusing on capturing the intricate details of flowers, leaves, and other plant elements. The course provides step-by-step guidance, from sketching initial outlines to adding depth and texture with colour. By the end of the course, participants will have created a collection of botanical illustrations and gained confidence in their artistic abilities. This course is ideal for individuals who enjoy nature and want to learn how to accurately depict plants in their artwork, whether for personal enjoyment or professional development.
