Course overview

This is the third course of six aimed at Upper Intermediate (B2) level learners of English. This six-week course is for those whose first language is NOT English and we will practice all four major skills in each session to further develop reading, writing, speaking, and listening. Lessons will be delivered in a face-to-face setting using a range of teacher led and freer interactive activities to develop learners' proficiency and confidence. In addition to a focus on general pronunciation, grammar and vocabulary, students will be encouraged to focus on colloquial English and develop an awareness of the local English being used in their contexts.

Course description

In this six-week ESOL course, (English for Speakers of Other Languages) learners will practice their reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills through topics such as: Taking risks; Giving opinions; Escapes; relationships and acting. There will also be an opportunity for learners to suggest topics for study and discussion. Areas of grammar will be: conditionals and future time clauses, (likely & probably); unreal conditionals; past modals, (would rather, had better); verbs of the senses. Vocabulary focus will be: expressions with 'take'; feelings; verbs often confused and the body. Students will engage in a variety of activities, (e.g. games, role plays, songs, exercises, pair-group/group discussions, presentations, Q & A) aimed to help learners develop and deepen their mastery of the English language. The written assignment for the course will be to write about an opinion on a topic of choice. There will be an opportunity for learners to check their own progression through a summative assessment at the end of the course. Learners will need to bring their own notebooks and pens, but course materials will be provided.
