Course description

This Pre-Entry Beginners English ESOL Conversation Class is tailored for non-native speakers with little or no English language experience, making it the perfect starting point for those eager to develop essential communication skills. Held on Wednesday mornings in Chichester, West Sussex, the course is delivered by our lovely and experienced teacher, Jane. The class offers a warm and welcoming environment, designed to support learners as they begin their English language journey.

Students will focus on building key skills in speaking, listening, reading, and writing. Through a variety of interactive activities, group discussions, and engaging role-plays, learners will practice everyday conversations, expand their vocabulary, and work on clear pronunciation. Listening exercises are designed to improve understanding of simple spoken English, while reading activities introduce basic texts to enhance comprehension. Writing sessions will guide students in forming simple sentences, filling out forms, and completing other practical tasks.

Jane's patient and supportive teaching style ensures that each student feels comfortable and confident as they progress. The course is student-centered, allowing learners to practice at their own pace, steadily building the skills needed for effective communication in everyday situations. Whether your goal is to gain confidence in speaking, better understand English, or prepare for further studies, this class offers the foundational support you.
