Course description

This Pre-Entry Beginners English ESOL Conversation Class is perfect for non-native speakers with little or no English language experience. Held on Monday mornings in Brighton, East Sussex, this course is led by our lovely and dedicated teacher, Jane. The class provides a warm and supportive environment, ideal for those taking their first steps in learning English.

The course focuses on developing essential skills in speaking, listening, reading, and writing. Through engaging activities, group discussions, and role-plays, students will practice everyday conversations, build essential vocabulary, and work on pronunciation. Speaking exercises will help learners gain confidence in expressing themselves in common situations, while listening activities are designed to improve comprehension of simple spoken English.

Reading sessions will introduce basic texts, such as signs, short stories, and simple articles, helping students to enhance their understanding and build their reading skills. Writing tasks will guide learners in forming simple sentences, filling out forms, and writing short messages or notes.

Jane's friendly and patient teaching style ensures that each student feels comfortable as they progress. The course is student-centered, allowing learners to practice at their own pace and steadily build the skills needed for effective communication in everyday life. Join us on Monday mornings in Brighton to start your journey toward English fluency with Teacher Jane's expert guidance.
