Course overview

Nowadays there are many ways to be green and consume responsibly. From reducing buying habits to repurposing and recycling things we no longer need, it's never been easier to adopt sustainable habits. And the good news is that sustainable practices help you save money, too. This sustainable finance course introduces you to money-saving tactics that align with green agendas. Being sustainable is about recycling, reducing, reusing, and generally consuming less. This course is ideal for you if you want to learn nifty ways to save money whilst helping the environment.

Course description

This sustainable finance course will introduce you to ways you can save money by introducing sustainable habits into your lifestyle. Get ideas on how to upcycle and repurpose items you no longer use. Understand the areas where you can reduce consumption to make savings and help the planet. Understand how to save money on your energy bills and make sure you're using sustainable energy providers.

This sustainable finance course is right for you if you want to improve your financial well-being and your carbon footprint. Learn to reduce your outgoings in a sustainable way.

Depending on your needs, there are various study options after this course.

You can study a personal finance course to learn to manage your money better. You can also take further sustainability courses to improve your understanding of eco-friendly practices and habits.

You'll need access to the internet to take this course as your tutor will upload useful materials to Canvas, the WEA's digital learning platform. You'll also need a digital device such as a laptop, tablet, or phone.

Your learning is our priority. The WEA is an adult education provider and we pride ourselves on our ability to create a friendly classroom atmosphere, in person and online.

Most of our courses are free for most of our learners. Please note that you need to get to the end of the enrolment process to see the discounts.

What financial support is available?

We don't want anything to stand in your way when it comes to bringing Adult learning within reach so if you need anything to support you to achieve your goals then speak to one of our education experts during your enrolment journey. Most of our courses are government funded but if you don't qualify or need alternative financial help to access them then let us know.

What other support is available?

All of our digital content, teaching and learning activities and assessments are designed to be accessible so if you need any additional support you can discuss this with the education experts during your enrolment journey and we will do all we can to make sure you have optimal access.
