Course overview

A modern maker's practical guide to decorative paper-led traditions. Beautiful step-by-step projects, each one taking its cue from a different tradition or technique, including origami, quilling, silhouette-cutting and fan-making, as well as contemporary paper sculpture. Led by contemporary designer/makers at the leading edge of today's craft revival. The art of paper-made projects are functional, accessible, stylish and fashionable, and include tips on how to take the next steps towards developing your own designs. This online course will give you the skill and confidence to express your passion for the handmade through the age-old crafts of cutting, sticking, folding and forming paper.

Course description

Have fun creating your own unique artwork inspired by Victorian designs and techniques. Papercraft, marbling, scrapbooking, and a variety of decorative techniques will be explored.

Discover the story of Christmas Past, learn how the Victorians developed their crafting skills to the season and enjoy producing your own Christmas designs including cards, gifts and decorations.
