Course overview

Have fun, find inspiration and develop creativity as we put the focus on tapping into the styles, structures and themes of a selection of iconic writers. A fun, friendly and structured approach to gain fiction writing knowledge and written word skills and, importantly, aid you in finding inspiration, putting pen paper and getting writing. Mystery, romance, fantasy, hardboiled crime, or a touch of the ghostly and gothic or something far more salacious – find inspiration as we consider the kind of words, characters and styles which suit a tale written by a selection of famous authors.

Course description

Even wondered what it would be like to write in the style of a famous author? It might be fun but we could also gain valuable knowledge, motivation and inspiration for our own writing. Have fun, find inspiration and develop creativity as we put the focus on tapping into the styles, structures and themes of a selection of iconic writers. A fun, friendly and structured approach to gain fiction writing knowledge and written word skills and, importantly, aid you in finding inspiration, putting pen paper and getting writing. Mystery, romance, fantasy, hardboiled crime, or a touch of the ghostly and gothic or something far more off the wall – find inspiration as we consider the kind of words, characters and styles which suit a tale written by a selection of famous authors. . We get motivated and get writing, mixing group activity with individual writing tasks, feedback and discussion. Whether or not we are fans of these authors or not - there are some valuable lessons to be learnt and fun to be had. Lewis Carroll, Raymond Chandler, Barbara Cartland, M.R James, Earnest Hemmingway, Hunter S.Thompson.
