Course overview

Can you take part in short conversations in Greek in a wide range of situations? This online course will expand the Greek you have already learnt and increase your confidence in using the language to communicate with the locals when in Greece or Cyprus. It will also give you a further insight into the Greek lifestyle and culture. The course is taught by a well-qualified and experienced native speaker with many years' teaching experience. Learning a foreign language for holiday or leisure is a great way to keep your brain active, explore a different culture, meet people with a common interest, increase your confidence and enhance your wellbeing. Take advantage of this unique opportunity today.

Course description

Build on your existing knowledge of Greek and improve your speaking and listening skills so that you can communicate in Greek more confidently and effectively in a wider range of situations. The emphasis will be on developing your speaking and listening skills in a friendly and supportive atmosphere and through a variety of activities. You will also improve your knowledge of grammar and vocabulary, your reading and writing skills and you will gain a further insight into the Greek lifestyle and culture.

Topics include talking about holidays, shopping, the Greek Easter, and expressing opinions on various topics. The course is taught by a well-qualified and experienced native speaker with many years' teaching experience who will help you explore the language and the culture.

This course is for learners who are at a lower intermediate level and have some knowledge of common verbs in the simple future and simple past tense.

If you are not sure if this course is right for you, feel free to discuss it with WEA staff at skills check.
