Course overview

Language and gender - do men and women speak differently? Is there a purpose to how we speak? Do the stories we tell others shape us? Connection between identity and informal ways we talk about ourselves. Gossip - social evil or good?

Course description

The sessions will be participatory considering most people have an opinion on these topics, but they will pick up on the class's thoughts to go into theoretical debates with examples from literature. Seminars will be interdisciplinary, drawing from literature, psychoanalysis and sociology.

What financial support is available?

We don't want anything to stand in your way when it comes to bringing Adult learning within reach so if you need anything to support you to achieve your goals then speak to one of our education experts during your enrolment journey. Most of our courses are government funded but if you don't qualify or need alternative financial help to access them then let us know.

What other support is available?

All of our digital content, teaching and learning activities and assessments are designed to be accessible so if you need any additional support you can discuss this with the education experts during your enrolment journey and we will do all we can to make sure you have optimal access.
