

Course details

Course title

Agatha Christie: Archaeology and the Author

Course code

Q00021117

Course date

Start: 05/03/25

End: 05/03/25

Number of classes

1 sessions

Timetable

Wed 5th Mar, 10:00 to 13:00

Tutor

Jo Shoebridge

Fee range

Free to £14.80

How you'll learn

You'll join a small group of fellow learners for classes online in video meetings and materials will be provided in our virtual learning environment.

Got it!

Online

Venue

Online

Level of study

Beginners

Course overview

When we hear the name ‘Agatha Christie’ we think about the crime novels for which she is so famous. This course is funded by the Education Skills and Funding Agency.

Course description

This session, which occurs during the month of International Women’s Day, will look at another side of this famous author – through her marriage to an archaeologist, Christie visited many archaeological sites in the Near East. This session will introduce her archaeological travels and some of the sites which played an important part in both her life and her writing, we will consider how the archaeology contributed to Christie’s writing, but also what she gave back in return

What financial support is available?

We don't want anything to stand in your way when it comes to bringing Adult learning within reach so if you need anything to support you to achieve your goals then speak to one of our education experts during your enrolment journey. Most of our courses are government funded but if you don't qualify or need alternative financial help to access them then let us know.

What other support is available?

All of our digital content, teaching and learning activities and assessments are designed to be accessible so if you need any additional support you can discuss this with the education experts during your enrolment journey and we will do all we can to make sure you have optimal access.

Source URL: <https://www.wea.org.uk/courses/humanities-science/other-sectors/5-march-agatha-christie-archaeology-and-author>