Course overview

We may be familiar with the images of the 18th Dynasty Pharaoh Tutankhamun, however, this dynasty also provides us with some interesting royal women who we will discuss during this short course, which occurs in the month of International Women's day. This course is funded by the Education Skills and Funding Agency.

Course description

We will consider the different roles that they may have held, their achievements and related artefacts. We will also develop a basic understanding of the geography and timeline of Ancient Egypt and where the 18th Dynasty fits in.

What financial support is available?

We don't want anything to stand in your way when it comes to bringing Adult learning within reach so if you need anything to support you to achieve your goals then speak to one of our education experts during your enrolment journey. Most of our courses are government funded but if you don't qualify or need alternative financial help to access them then let us know.

What other support is available?

All of our digital content, teaching and learning activities and assessments are designed to be accessible so if you need any additional support you can discuss this with the education experts during your enrolment journey and we will do all we can to make sure you have optimal access.
